Sun City Naz News

Congratulations Virginia Faul!
She was honored with our Distinguished Service Award. The award is a means by which churches contribute to missions globally. Virginia volunteers “behind the scenes” by mailing birthday and anniversary cards to any in the church family who give us that info for the directory. She also mails CDs of the Sunday morning worship services to folks who are unable to attend and don’t have access to a computer.

Women’s Ministry October Luncheon...has been cancelled due to COVID guidelines. The WM council will be meeting soon to consider a December event.

Emergency Food Drive...hunger is so prevalent in our community right now between COVID and little to no income for families. This month, please bring canned meats, peanut butter, beans & other non-perishable food. Place them in the Valley View Food Bank cart in lobby.

Volunteer for Hospice! This is another way you can share Christ’s love in this community. Many of us or our loved ones have been blessed by this organization that ministers to terminally ill patients & their families. (Read to them, write letters, work in the office, bring your dog, knitting & other crafts, etc.) For more info, contact Gigi Elliott (480.21.2143 or GElliott@Seasons.org)

The Sun City Naz family is physically vulnerable. In caring for each other, please wear your mask, use hand sanitizer, keep a distance of 6 feet when possible, and greet each other without physical contact.

Get Your Flu Vaccine...your Sun City Naz parish nurses (Sherill Byrn and Barbara Hofferth) are recommending you get the annual flu vaccine as soon as possible.

Coming in October!*

Thank You...

Dear Pastor Estep and the Sun City Naz NMI Council, What a pleasant surprise to receive your gift in the mail this past week. How kind of you to think of me and my family during this very unique time in our nation. Your very generous gift will be put to good use and may even provide a much needed treat. Thank you, each one, for blessing us—not only with your generosity, but also with your great prayer support for my family and God’s church here in Chino Valley. May He greatly bless you.

—Rev. Diana Elliott
