Thank You...I cannot express the happiness I felt when my parents told me about your church & its community. You provided the love, warmth, and community that my parents needed. When my father passed, I knew he would want to have his memorial there. Everyone made the memorial so special for me and my family. Your kindness made the day flow a little easier. Your love of others and your community made my heart full... —Family of David Quiel

Table with 2 columns: Day and This Week... Activities. Rows include Monday through Saturday with various church events and times.
